

Allen Douglas Fellows

Allen Douglas Fellows
1863 – 1918

Fellows was a noted local architect, responsible for many of the outstanding homes and buildings in Auburn. These include the Masonic Hall, the Auburn Carnegie Library, the Hink Block and numerous private homes. Fellows was also a teacher having positions at both the Sierra Normal School and Placer Union High School.

Fellows was born in Iowa as was his first wife, Beatrice. Beatrice was a music teacher and performed in many local choir groups. He married his second wife, Ida in 1916. Fellows died at only 55 years old in 1918.

Findagrave.com, K-M database, ancestry.com