

Placer High 2004 Girls Cross Country Team

Placer High 2004 Girls Cross County Team

Seven runners from Placer High School won the 2004 California State Championship in Division 3. There are over 500 Division 3 high schools in California. This was the first time in the history of Placer High that a Cross Country team (boy or girl) had won a California state title. Both the Auburn City Council and the Placer County Board of Supervisors made proclamations praising the efforts of the team. The team was ranked 7th going into the competition defeating the number 1 ranked Maria Carillo High School team. The team consisted of Keri Buck, Michell Dadigan, Megan Ramirez, Amanda Gillming, Katie Vaughn, Kim Crouch, Jordan Burke, Head Coach Randall Fee. Assistant coach John Krogsrud.

Nomination Application