

Tyrone (Ty) Rowe

Ty Rowe
(1965) - 2018

Ty was a proud Auburn boy. He graduated from Placer High in 1983. He attended the prestigious Culinary Institute of American in New York before testing his skills as a chef all over Europe. Returning home, he opened the Bootleggers Old Town Tavern and Grill. It quickly became one of Auburn's premium restaurants. Ty was loyal to his home town, participating and lending his skills to numerous community events. His untimely death in 2019 was a shock and great loss to the entire community.

Nomination Form