§ 116.01 STREET AND SIDEWALK SALES.

It shall be unlawful for any person, without first having obtained a permit from the Chief of Police, to sell, display for sale, trade, vend or peddle any personal property on the streets or sidewalks of the city.

(1973 Code, § 5-10.01) (Ord. 706, eff. 6-22-1977)
Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 116.02 RESIDENTIAL PEDDLING AND SOLICITING.

It shall be unlawful for any person, without first having obtained a permit from the Chief of Police, to go upon any residential real property, or to enter into any private residence, within the city for the purpose of either:

(A) Soliciting food, clothing, charitable assistance, financial aid, alms, money or any personal property from any person unless the person is an authorized member or representative of an association or society for benevolent, charitable or religious purposes; or

(B) Selling, trading, soliciting, vending or peddling any article, merchandise or other personal

§ 116.03 PERMITS; INVESTIGATIONS; ISSUANCE.

The permits required by the provisions of this chapter shall be issued only if, after investigation, the Chief of Police finds that the applicant is of sound moral character, is financially responsible, and that the proposed activity will not unreasonably interfere with vehicular or pedestrian traffic control or the reasonable enjoyment of the residential use of real property of the citizens of the city.

(1973 Code, § 5-10.03) (Ord. 706, eff. 6-22-1977)

§ 116.04 PERMITS; TERMS; APPEALS.

(A) The permits required by the provisions of this chapter shall be for the duration, not to exceed one year, and upon the terms as the Chief of Police shall determine necessary so as not to unreasonably interfere with vehicular or pedestrian traffic control.

(B) Any applicant denied a permit, or dissatisfied with any of the conditions thereof, may appeal the denial or objectionable condition to the Council for a public hearing and final determination thereof.

(1973 Code, § 5-10.04) (Ord. 706, eff. 6-22-1977)

§ 116.05 PERMITS; FEES.

A condition of the issuance of the permits required by the provisions of this chapter shall be the charging of a permit fee reasonably related to the cost of the investigation and administrative processing of the application for the permit, which fee shall be fixed or changed by the Council by resolution.

(1973 Code, § 5-10.05) (Ord. 706, eff. 6-22-1977)
